

Military Tuition Reimbursement Program

The Learning Source is an approved provider for the military tuition reimbursement program for our Real Estate classes.

This program reimburses military personnel for approved education. To utilize the program, students follow the below listed steps:

1. Submit the request to take the course to the school by providing the below listed information to the school.
2. The school then submits the information through our approved provider web link for tuition reimbursement approval.
3. The student's eligibility is verified and the school is notified that the student meets the reimbursement criteria.
4. The school then notifies the student that they are approved for reimbursement.
5. The student pays the school for the course under the schools payment policy.
6. The student completes the course.
7. The school submits the class start date and the end date and the approved course name to confirm completion for reimbursement.
8. The student then receives direct payment from the military for reimbursement.
